

As we've now made it to half of the way through 2019, I thought it'd be good to provide a quick update about the how the championship is going. Rather than just a regurgitation of the standings (that you can already find on the website), I thought it might be good to share some facts about the progress of the champs up to this point . . .

Membership Facts!

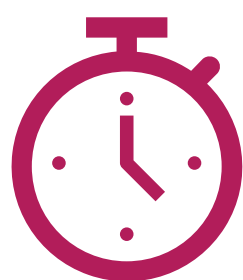

... The club now has over 80 members, and is still growing

... 59% of members are male & 41% female

... 74% of members are in the younger age categories (U8 / U11)

... The largest age category is Boys U8, making up 24% of the entire membership

36 Hours!

During the course of the first 7 events, competitors have clocked-up:

- Over 36 hours of running
- Over 270 Miles (430 KM)

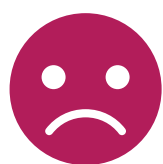

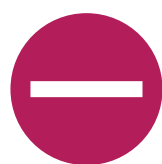

270 Miles!

430 KM!

Many, many home-made post-race treats have been consumed for various great milestone celebrations! 😊

15 members (17%) haven't yet taken part in any events. But, there's still plenty of events left to enter and score points in!

The average competitor:

- Is 9 years-of-age
- Has completed 3 events
- Scored 334, in the Points League
- Averages 64%, in the Age-Graded League

Now, for the serious bit! 😊 Our Leaders . . .

* Two extra age categories (Boys U8 / Girls U8) have now been added. This has been done in the interest of fairness, as lots of events (even 2K ones) set a minimum entry age of 8. By creating these two extra age categories, we can cater for the younger competitors with alternative events *
